The Applicant bears the risk of any postal delays, unavailable internet lines or servers, unavailable fax lines and any other logistical or technical problems that may result in applications not being received in time or at all. In addition, the Manager (acting for the Company) may, in its sole discretion, accept applications placed by taped phone within the Application Period, provided that the Applicant confirms that the Applicant accepts the terms of this Application Agreement. Any application made by taped phone will be binding on the Applicant in the same manner as an application made in writing. Without limiting the binding nature of applications made by taped phone, the Manager may require that an application placed by taped phone is subsequently confirmed by the execution of this Application Agreement in writing, and may, if the Applicant fails to satisfy such requirement, in its sole discretion, disregard the application, without any liability towards the Applicant. Any application placed by taped phone shall be deemed made on the terms and subject to the conditions set out in this Application Agreement. Any application received by the Manager (whether in writing or by taped phone) becomes binding at the end of the Application Period and may not be withdrawn or amended after such time.

The final number of Offer Shares to be issued to an Applicant will be determined by the Company’s board of directors.

Allotment of Offer Shares totalling a lower amount than applied for does not affect the Applicant’s obligation to subscribe and pay for the Offer Shares allotted.
